

The Digital Product School is awarding the following

Certificate

to Mark Verayo

for successfully completing our interdisciplinary program from Sep 8, 2025 to Nov 28, 2025 as a Product Manager of team Midas.

About

Digital Product School (DPS) is a 3-month full-time training program and internship by UnternehmerTUM GmbH. The DPS combines workshops and coaching with hands-on working experience in digital product development.

Participants from various professional, cultural, and personal backgrounds collaborate in interdisciplinary teams to create human-centered digital solutions for actual problems provided by partner organizations.

Mark developed competencies in the following fields

- # Applying Design Thinking methods
- # Agile product development
- # Working according to the Scrum framework (backlog, prioritization, planning, daily stand-ups, reviews, retrospectives)
- # Interdisciplinary teamwork
- # Preparing and conducting problem interviews
- # Preparing and conducting usability tests
- # Risk validation through experiments
- # User Story Mapping
- # Low- & Hi-Fi prototyping
- # Prioritizing opportunities

Brigitte Weber, Product Management Coach

Steffen Kastner, Principal Product Manager

